Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Reading I	Genesis	14:18-20
Reading II	1 Corinthians	11:23-26
Gospel	John	9:11b-17

One name for the Church is the Body of Christ. Today's feast focuses on how the body of Christ is nourished and in turn gives life. From the Old Testament, from the early Christian community and from the Gospel, we hear accounts of blessings associated with the giving of life. The dying and rising of Jesus, the freedom from enemies and the abundance of nourishment give and sustain life. The Church becomes the Body of Christ precisely when it acts in the way of Jesus, e.g. by being present to the hungry and the broken. Sometimes this is on such a grand scale that it becomes news. More often, and perhaps more importantly, are the times when bringing the presence of Jesus into our world is such an ordinary part of the fabric of our lives that we only recognize it when we stop and reflect. For example, sitting with a sick person, feeding a child, preparing a family dinner, and sharing a meal with a stranger are all life-giving acts. These are opportunities to thank God for the gift of life.

"Change for Change"

We are all spread so thin with time pressures and financial demands. It seems that there is no end to the requests for our time and financial assistance. How can we help? How can we feel we are making some positive difference in our St. Thomas community? Think "Change for Change!" Home visits are an essential part of our St. Vincent de Paul ministry and our success is a direct correlation to the generous financial support we receive from our fellow parishioners here at St. Thomas, specifically through the donations received at the six Masses on the first Saturday/Sunday of every month. The next appeal will be Saturday, June 1 and Sunday, June 2. Please consider this opportunity to be our assistants in this ongoing expanding effort to make a difference in a few struggling families' lives, when more often than not this "struggling" is a direct result of a sudden health problem or a job loss situation. We make every effort to provide that one-time financial "hand" that will pick up these special people in our community and assure them that we are all children of a good and caring God. We serve as His ministers to their needs.

For the long run, beyond just your June support, please consider throwing that dirty ol' change in a can or jar each evening and bring it to St. Thomas the first weekend of each month. Your "change" will help effect a very positive "change" in these special peoples lives…"Change for Change!!" Thank you!

BTW...our St. Thomas Food Pantry is running low on several items...particularly pancake mix and syrups...Please be generous with your Food Pantry donations also..Peace.

Please remember St. Thomas Church in your will..
